NOTICE TO APPLICANTS: THE ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS WILL NOT HEAR YOUR APPEAL UNLESS YOU HAVE ANSWERED ALL THE QUESTIONS IN THE APPLICATION AND PROVIDED THE DOCUMENTS REQUESTED.

To grant you a use variance, the Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA) must consider the benefit of the variance to you as weighed against the detriment to the health, safety and welfare of your neighborhood or the community. In making this determination, the ZBA will review the information and documents you provide with this application and other evidence you and/or others present at a hearing to be held by the Board.

If a use variance is granted, the ZBA can only grant the minimum variance deemed necessary and adequate while preserving and protecting the character of the neighborhood and the health, safety and welfare of the community.

The ZBA may impose reasonable conditions and restrictions on the variance.
